The organisation provides minimum cryptographic security on its backend & secure configuration.

The organisation's backend implements additional secure setup options.

The organisation implements reliable and appropriate backend patching procedures which are evidenced.

The organisation enforces a strong user identity policy.

Security	Security	Security	Security

The device uses strong cryptographic schemes.

The device firmware is compliant with industry security standards.

The organisation has clear admin user management policies.

Security	Security	Security	Security